-Accommodation:

The Universitat Politècnica de València provides a free service to students to help them find accommodation that meets their expectations and needs. To do so, the UPV keeps a database with information about students and individuals offering and requesting shared flats, stays with a family or flats to rent.

The UPV cannot be held responsible by either of the parties for any issues regarding the conditions of the accommodation, the behaviour of tenants or any failure to comply with payments. Its only intention is to help students with their search and to act as a simple mediator between students and the owners of properties (lessors).

The two parties must reach an agreement on the conditions of the accommodation and on the rent contract. Under no circumstances whatsoever will the UPV address any complaints related to these matters.
